

The Bank of the River Taedong in Pyongyang Gets More Beautiful Day by Day

The River Taedong is one of the famous rivers in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. It is 450.3 kilometres long. It rises in Mt. Rangnim in Taehung County of South Phyongan Province into the West Sea of Korea.

Stemming from the river, Taedonggang Culture, one of the world's five cultures, was created. The area of the River Taedong was a very good place of human inhabitation with beautiful scenery.

The River Taedong flows through the capital city of Pyongyang curving around the bends of mountains such as Moran, Mansu and Mangyong Hills. The scenery of the banks of the river with clear water is very beautiful.

The scenery on the bank of the River Taedong gets beautiful all the more along with the new monumental structures, modern apartment houses and pleasure grounds built around it day by day.

