

Educator Good at Training Music Prodigies

Taedongmun Kindergarten in Central District of Pyongyang, the capital of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, is well-known for excellent early music education.

Its teacher Ri Ok Ryon is good at training promising kayagum players.

Her disciples are stealing the limelight as competent kayagum players at major art troupes in the country or playing a leading role in training musical talents at several art educational institutions.

Kayagum is one of the Korean traditional musical instruments.

Ri Ok Ryon teaches kayagum.

Skill presentation is frequently held to develop children's artistry.

Great efforts are directed to the education of musical rudiments.

Rendering tender, loving care to children