

Happy Life of Orphans

Excellent childcare and educational institutions for orphans have been built in different parts of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. Among them is Hamhung Primary School for Orphans situated in Haean District of Hamhung City, South Hamgyong Province.

Children grow happily with nothing to envy in the world as the school is fully provided with studying and living conditions.

Students study to their heart's content.

Students make things in reflection of their dreams and wishes.

Activities of art and sports groups after school

Orphans follow teacher as their dear mother.
