

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Visits Revolutionary Martyrs Cemetery on Mt Taesong

Pyongyang, August 16 (KCNA) -- Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, visited the Revolutionary Martyrs Cemetery on Mt Taesong on August 15, the day of Korea's liberation.

Present there were secretaries and other officials of the WPK Central Committee.

The guard of honor of the Korean People's Army (KPA) lined up there.

A wreath in the name of the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un was laid amid the playing of wreath-laying music.

On the ribbon of the wreath were letters reading "Revolutionary martyrs will be immortal".

Kim Jong Un, together with the participants, paid high tribute to the revolutionary martyrs who laid down their precious lives for the country's independence and sovereignty, the people's liberation and the victorious advance of the socialist cause.

There was a march-past of the KPA guard of honor.

Noting that August 15 was a great auspicious event in which the Korean people achieved the national independence and sovereignty and a great political event which opened up a broad avenue for building an independent power, Kim Jong Un said that the day ushered in the new era of the dignity and prestige of Juche Korea and of its valiant spirit with which it is proving the truth of its cause through a courageous and dynamic struggle.

The indomitable faith, noble idea and exploits of the pioneer generation of the Korean revolution are displaying inexhaustible viability without the slightest discoloration despite the passage of time, he said, adding that they serve as a precious revolutionary legacy and ideological blood vessel of fundamental and lasting significance in the development of the Korean revolution.

He stressed that when the revolutionary spirit of Paektu guaranteeing the ever-victorious history and the eternal youth of the Juche revolution is carried forward dynamically in a pure way through all ages, our cause, noble in its origin and sacred in its history and tradition, will never be stopped with anything, and it will advance towards eternal glory and victory, displaying the invincible, indomitable strength. -0-

www.kcna.kp (Juche113.8.16.)

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Visits Liberation Tower

Pyongyang, August 16 (KCNA) -- Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, visited the Liberation Tower on August 15, the 79th anniversary of Korea's liberation.

Accompanying him were senior officials of the Central Committee of the WPK and Choe Son Hui, foreign minister of the DPRK, and commanding officers of armed forces organs.

The guard of honor of the Korean People's Army lined up in front of the tower.

The national anthems of the Russian Federation and the DPRK were played.

A wreath in the name of Kim Jong Un was laid before the tower amid the playing of wreath-laying music.

Written on the ribbon of the wreath were letters reading "We do not forget the exploits of the fallen fighters of the Soviet Army".

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un paid high tribute to the fallen fighters, recollecting with reverence the feats performed by the officers and men of the Soviet Army in realizing the historic sacred cause of Korea's liberation.

There was a march-past of the KPA guard of honor.

Kim Jong Un said that the great history of Korea's liberation, which brought about a radical turn in carving out the destiny and rejuvenation of the Korean revolution and the Korean nation, is clearly associated with the matchless self-sacrificing spirit and immortal exploits displayed by the excellent sons and daughters of the Russian people and the heroic images of the officers and men of the Red Army are cherished as a genuine example of true internationalism in the minds of the Korean people.

He said that the militant friendship and solidarity forged between the service personnel and peoples of the two countries in the sacred war against the common enemy fully demonstrated their invincibility and eternal vitality in the protracted course of struggle to foil the imperialists' arbitrary practices and hegemony.

He said that the good history, tradition and ties of kinship spanning more than 80 years serve as the basic cornerstone to develop the DPRK-Russia relations of friendship and cooperation into the most solid comradely relations and comprehensive strategic partnership and as the inexhaustible strength propelling the building of powerful states in the two countries and the creation of a multi-polarized new world.

He expressed belief that the great friendship and solidarity between the peoples of the DPRK and Russia, who built the forward-looking ties between the states and are struggling shoulder to shoulder for the common purpose, would be creditably carried forward and developed along with the noble soul of the forerunners of the two countries and with the new era of overall heyday. -0-

www.kcna.kp (Juche113.8.16.)