

Preschool Children of the DPRK

In socialist Korea, all the children are growing brightly and healthily under the benefits of the state, irrespective of their parents' jobs.

They are singing the song "We Are the Happiest in the World" in well-furnished childcare centres equipped with everything that satisfies the needs of preschool children.

Children engrossed in observing graphics

In the playground

Kids are free to learn the rudiments according to their own hobby.

