

Pyongyang Gold Lane

The Pyongyang Gold Lane is situated on the bank of the picturesque Taedong River in Pyongyang, the capital city of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea

Inaugurated in February 1994, it has three cone-shaped roofs.

With two storeys above and one under the ground, it is equipped with 40 bowling lanes controlled by computers and various amusement and service facilities.

The gold lane, which is capable of hosting international bowling contests, is frequented by many working people including youth and students.

The Pyongyang Gold Lane

Fans analyzing game results